Dear Parents/carers

We had a virtual Ofsted visit today, with two of Her Majesty's Inspectors. HMIs Mathew Barnes and Sarah McGinnis.

They had a set of questions to ask which were part of a research project and were based around the lockdown in March and the return to school in September. The attachment shows what today's visit will form part of. They didn't want to speak to parents at this time.

There will be a short letter to follow which I will share with you as soon as it is published.

Yours sincerely

Sarah Pickering
